Notification dated 13th March 1951.

CIRCULAR.

It is hereby notified for the information of the Managing Agents, Directors, Secretaries of all the Joint-Stock Companies in Mysore, that Section 13 of the Foreign Exchange Regulation Act, 1947, (which is reproduced below in extenso) is extended to Pakistan and Afghanistan.

9687 K. SUBBA RAO, Registrar.

I. No person shall, except with the general or special permission of the Reserve Bank:—

(a) take or send any security to any place outside India;

(b) transfer any security or create or transfer any interest in a security to or in favour of a person resident outside India;

(c) transfer any security from a register in British India to a register outside India or do any act which is calculated to secure, or forms part of a series of acts which together are calculated to secure, the substitution for any security which is either in, or registered in, British India, of any security which is either outside or registered outside India.

(d) issue, whether in British India, or elsewhere, any security which is registered or to be registered in British India to a person resident outside India.

2. Where the holder of a security is a nominee, neither he nor any person through whose agency the exercise of all or any of the holder's rights in respect of the security is controlled shall, except with the general or special permission of the Reserve Bank, do any act whereby he recognises or gives effect to the substitution of another person as the person from whom he directly receives instructions, unless both the persons previously instructing him and the person substituted for that person were, immediately before the substitution, resident in India.

3. The Reserve Bank may, for the purpose of securing that the provisions of this section are not evaded, require that the person transferring any security and the person to whom such security is transferred shall subscribe to a declaration that the transferee is not resident outside India.

4. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law, no person shall, except with the permission of the Reserve Bank :—

(a) enter any transfer of securities in any register or book in which securities are registered or inscribed if he has any ground for suspecting that the transfer involves any contravention of the provisions of this section; or

(b) enter in any such register or book, in respect of any security, whether in connection with the issue or transfer of the security or otherwise, an address outside India except by way of substitution for any such address in the same country or for the purpose of any transaction for which permission has been granted under this section with knowledge that it involves entry of the said address.

5. For the purposes of this section :—

(a) "holder" in relation to a bearer security means the person having physical custody of the security; provided that, where a bearer security is deposited with any person in a locked or sealed receptacle from which the person with whom it is deposited is not entitled to remove it without the authority of some other person that other person shall be deemed to be the holder of the security;

(b) "nominee" means a holder of any security (including a bearer security) or any coupon representing dividends or interest who, as respects the exercise of any
